

Violaine Bringaud – Jean-Paul Labarthe

PSAM12 Speaker Bio

Crisis organization and severe accident management: Contribution of ergonomic considerations in the definition of Severe Accident Management Guidelines (SAMG)

Short Statement: Violaine Bringaud is the first author and the speaker for the authors.

BIOGRAPHY

Violaine Bringaud is an human and organizational research engineer. She works for Electricity of France (EDF) Research and Development Division (R&D), at the Industrial Risk Management Department. She works on nuclear safety management programs, specifically on operating experience organizations.

She also participates in the Severe Accident Management Guidelines (SAMG) conception project for a new European reactor unit under construction.

Jean-Paul Labarthe is an ergonomics expert. He works for Electricity of France (EDF) Research and Development Division (R&D), at the Industrial Risk Management Department. He's an human factors project manager on new reactors.